Providing Scholarships to over 400 Children

PeaceTrees is excited to announce that we are once again partnering with One Day's Wages to award over 400 scholarships to the children of Quang Tri province most affected by the legacy of war!

These scholarship help children remain in school because they cover full tuition, uniforms, books, meals, and additional administrative fees that families would otherwise be unable to pay. Access to education is a proven poverty reduction measure as it allows children to go to school, learn important skills, and develop more economic security for their futures.

This initiative is also made possible through the generous support of a veteran and his family. Veterans continue to play a critical role in the PeaceTrees community and mission and we are deeply grateful to honor their contribution.

On June 1st, widely celebrated as International Children's Day, we invite you to sponsor a scholarship for one child in Quang Tri. Each donation of $50 will provide another student with the support they need to attend school for an entire year.

UXO Continue to Threaten Lives

This year PeaceTrees added two more Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) teams! The 20 newly employed technicians are needed just as much now as ever before. In March and April alone, technicians cleared unexploded ordnance in easy to access public places including an abandoned freezer and flower pot. One mortar round was even being used as an anvil before it was identified as a dangerous UXO (see bottom left photo).

These remnants of war demonstrate just how critical our work is, and how much more there is to do in Quang Tri Province! We are looking forward to expanding our positive impact and clearing more land than ever.

Join Us for Our 23rd Anniversary Luncheon

Support our life-saving humanitarian mine action in central Vietnam on October 23rd at the Four Seasons Hotel in Seattle. The reception will begin at 11:30am and lunch will be served at 12:00pm. As in past years, the event will be a chance for the PeaceTrees community to come together to learn about our successes on the ground and the future challenges we can tackle together.
